SEMICENTENNIAL OF EDEN THEOLOGICAL COLLEGE.

THE GREAT CELEBRATION TO TAKE PLACE HERE.

It Will Continue From June 24 to 26 Inclusive—Three Thousand Persons Expected.

Despite the street railway strike the semicentennial celebration of the Evangelical Eden Theological College, on Hunt road, will take place as originally planned on June 24, 25 and 26. This decision of the Festival Committee was reported at the special meeting of the Evangelical Society of St. Louis last night in the hall of St. Peter's Church at Fourteenth and Carr streets. There was not a large representation because of the difficulties of travel. The society represents twenty-five large evangelical congregations of St. Louis. It had been announced that the strike in all its bearings would be discussed and also the remedies, but on account of the publicity such action would entail, the elergy present deemed it impractical. G. H. Wetterau presided at the meeting, and the Reverend Christian G. Haas was secretary.

All preparations for the semicentennial were reported to be complete. This college is the only evangelical theological seminary in America, and almost all the evangelical clergy of America are its alumni and will make efforts to be present. It is anticipated that the attendance from abroad will be at that the attendance from abroad will be at least 2,000 persons, as there are special excursion rates for the occasion from Milwaukee, Toledo, Erie, Detroit, Burlington, Ia., Cincinnati, Cieveland, Buffale, New York, Louisville, Chicago, Evansville, Ill., Quincy, Ill., Indianapolis, Kansas City and many other points.

Those near St. Louis will bring delegations of 500 and more. The gentiemen in charge of the celebration are the Reverends George Goebel of St. Charles, Mo., chairman; John Wollau, Waterloo, Ill., secretary; J. Kramer, Quincy; H. Walser, C. G. Haas and John Baltzer of St. Louis. They expressed the hope that the thousands of visitors would be spared scenes of violence and would be well treated.

Since February a grand choir of 350 picked visitors would be spared scenes of violence and would be well treated.

Since February a grand choir of 350 picked voices, from all the churches, has been preparing for the celebration, under the leadership of Frofessor Frank Saeger, organist of St. Bethany's Church. They will sing Handel's "Hailelejah Chorus" and Psalm No. 18, the music composed by Professor Saeger. A large platform has been constructed for them in the college grounds. A tent with a seating capacity of 3,000 will be erected, and tents are to be located alongside where meals will be served in the forenoon and afternoon. The students will sing a Hebrew song in the original language, with an instrumental accompaniment, played on instruments of ancient israel. The college orchestra also will play.

On the first day there will be a general celebration, the second will be devoted especially to the alumni and on the third day there will be an excursion to Marthasyille, Mo., to visit the place where the Eden Theological College was founded. The speakers at the festivities will be the Reverend Doctors L. Haeberle, superintendent Eden College; John Zimmerman, president synod, Buritagton, Ia., the Reverend Doctor Paul L. Menzel of Richmond, Va.; Professor Dantel Irion of Chicago, and the Reverend Hugo Stammer of Chicago.

ALLISON TOO FAR-SEEING. Tells Mr. McKinley He Will Not Take Second Place.

REPUBLIC SPECIAL. Washington, June 11 .- Senator Allison, accompanied by his colleague, Senator Gear, had a long conference with the President had a long conference with the President this morning. Mr. Allison called to tell the President that he could not, under any circumstances, consider the profier of the vice presidential nomination. The President told Mr. Allison that the party needed a conservative, level-headed man like himself in this crists, and pleaded with him to sink his personal preferences and become a willing victim to party loyalty and all that sort of thing.

Mr. Allison resisted the temptation, remainded the President of the fact that he was now chairman of the Committee on Appropriations and, as such, the practical controller and leader of the Senate, whereas, if he were Vice President, he would be nothing more than presiding officer of the Senate, unable to control anything, without power or authority and in all but the nothing more than presiding officer of the Senate, unable to control anything, without power or authority and in all but the distinguished title, a nonentity. This place, Mr. Allison told the President, a man who had been so long in public life as himself, could not consent to nlt, even though party leyalty demanded it.

Mr. Allison, after fencing for some time, told the President plainly and bluntly what he had heretofore told his colleagues at the Capitol—that no blandishment, no argument, no pledge, no promise could induce him to give up the place he now holds in the Senate and which the people of Iowa will bestow upon him so long as he wishes it. Mr. Allison evidently has not forgotten the lesson learned from the fate of John Sherman, who, to please the administration, resigned from the Senate to make a place for Mark Hanna and then was sacrificed by the same administration and forced into retirement of private life.

MAJOR FUGER TO RETIRE. One Regiment. REPUBLIC SPECIAL

Washington, June 11.—Major Frederick Fuger of the Fourth Artillery, stationed at Fort McHenry, will retire from active serrort McHenry, win retire from active service next Monday, June 18. Accompanied by his family, he will come to Washington to live.

Major Fuger has had a long and distinguished military career, having served continuously in the Fourth United States Artillery forty-four years. He was born in Germany in 1836 and came to this country in 1854. He enlisted as a private in the United States Army August 21, 1856, and was assigned to Battery A. Fourth Artillery. From September, 1856, to September 1857, he served in the expedition under General Harney, against the Seminole Indians in Florida. He afterwards served in the Utah expedition under General Johnston. In 1869 he fought the hostile Indians at Egan Canon, Mo., and was promoted to be Corporal and soon afterward to Sergeant.

While in Missouri, Major Fuger was placed in charge of Egan Station, with a detachment of eight men. The station was soon afterward surrounded by 190 Indians. Major Fuger, then a Sergeant, kept his little detachment contined in a small block-house, from which he and his men kept firing through holes in the walls at the Indians for eleven days. Finally Lieutenant Weed, commanding Light Eattery B, Fourth Artillery, went to his rescue and scattered the red men. vice next Monday, June 18. Accompanied —Steamer Carrier will come to port to clear Wednesday to Hamburs.

—The Paid Eagle is taking freight and people for the Hilmots River and Peoria. She will be due this morning.

—Callers at the M. & O. pilot reoms yesterday were Tom 'Arrison and Henry Beedle of the Dubuque: Ben Perry and Harry Matson of the Peters Lee.

—The Russell Lord was in from Paducah and scheduled out for the Teinessee River.

—The name of the P. D. Stagg, now being rebuilt at Evanswile, Ind., will be changed to India Givens, in honor of the wife of Major Givers, traveling representative for the T. J. Moss Tie Commany, St. Louis.

—Captain George W. Bavis, a veteran steamboatn an, formerly of St. Louis, died at Vicksburg, Miss., yesterday, after a lingering attack of typhoid fever. AFTER ARMY APPOINTMENTS. President Besieged by Fond Mammas and Proud Papas.

REPUBLIC SPECIAL. Washington, June 11.-Colonel Clark E. Carr of Galesburg, Ill., a well-known Republican, with Senator Cullom, to-day visited the White House. Colonel Carr desires an appointment as Lieutenant in the army an appointment as Lieutenant in the army for his son, and Senator Cullom strongly urged this. Senator Mason, who called later, also gave the application hearty indorsement. The latter talked with the President for some time over affairs of party interest.

Fond mammas and proud papas, re-enforced by their political and social friends, are just now storming the White House in behalf of their sons. Probably no rush for place has ever exceeded in eagerness and anxiety the one now in progress with the ten cadetships, divided between West Point and Annapolis, and in the gift of the President as the objects of sitainment.

Representative Babcoct, of Wisconsin saw the President to-day. He will not attend the Philadelphia convention. When asked when the Republican Congressional Committee, of which he is chalrman, will open its headquarters, he replied:

"As soon as I get to Chicago,"

"Then the headquarters will be established there?"

"Yes," was the answer.
